

Play WAR and Increase Blackjack Bet with WAR WINNINGS

GETTING STARTED

Player must make a Blackjack wager and has the option to make a War wager of an amount within posted table limits. Player will receive 1 Card face up as Player's War Card and as Player's first Blackjack Card which will go against the Dealer's Up Card.

WINNING WAR

Player wins War when his or her War Card is higher in value than the Dealer's Up Card. Poker values apply, except for the Ace, which plays as one (1), low. Player may elect to collect all of the proceeds (original bet and winnings) OR Player may add only the winnings to the Blackjack wager and have the original War wager returned.

WINNING BLACKJACK

Once the War wager is settled, each Player receives one (1) more Card face up and the Dealer receives (1) more card face down, and then plays and wins in Blackjack according to the traditional rules of the game.

ADDITIONAL RULES

Dealer wins all ties in War. All wins in War pay 1:1. Player may double down or split after increasing Blackjack bet with War winnings. Note: DO NOT touch chips while they are in action. The Dealer will move them for the Player.
